QUALITY AND CRAFTSMANSHIP SINCE 1992

Laakeri-Center Oy imports, stocks and sells high-quality bearings and transmission products. The company has places of business in Helsinki, Tampere, Turku, Vaasa, Kotka, Jyväskylä and Kuopio. The new central warehouse and retail outlet operates in Hollola.

We source products from internationally known and respected manufacturers. We stock over 52,000 different products - including many specialty products not found elsewhere. We are constantly renewing our range of products based on the wishes of our customers.

Our customer base covers all industries, as we are able to offer the right products for the most diverse needs.

Our key strength is logistics chain management: we provide quick and smooth delivery of the ordered products directly to the customer's business address. We also invest in customer service and accessibility. Our staff, having been in the house for a long time, will be happy to answer customers' questions and help you choose the right products. Information about the products and their availability can also be found in our online store.

Laakeri-Center's staff maintain their professional skills by, among other things, participating in trainings organized by the clients.

CENTRAL WAREHOUSE IN HOLLOLA

Our new central warehouse is located in Hollola with good transport connections. The central location allows for fast and flexible deliveries across the country.

There is clear product group division in the modern two-storey warehouse, with room to further expand the product range. In connection with the warehouse, customers are also served by a sales office.

DELIVERIES ON TIME TO THE WHOLE COUNTRY

Our central warehouse in Hollola stocks more than 52,000 different products. In addition, we have regional warehouses in connection with our places of business, with a selection that is built to the needs of local customers.

We take advantage of modern automation to monitor inventory balances in real time and replenish inventories on a weekly basis. This way, our customers get the ordered products precisely when they need them.

Warehouse automation ensures that products are received from the principals in sufficient numbers at the central warehouse and that the correct products are delivered from the central warehouse to the local warehouses at the right time.

We offer our customers various logistics solutions for product deliveries and shelving. This way, they neither have to invest in warehousing nor consider logistics, but are instead able to focus on their own core business.
